

DRAYMEN CAN'T USE ANY PAVED STREET.

ALDERMEN MAKE THEM CHANGE THEIR RENDEZVOUS.

River Street Will No Longer Be the Stand—Pavement Ordered On With River and West Milwaukee Streets Public Library Directors Named—Change In Lights.

Janesville draymen will now be compelled to seek another rendezvous. For years draymen have been permitted to rendezvous on North River street, near West Milwaukee, for the purpose of soliciting custom. The place being central, has been a great convenience, not only to the draymen but to those having occasion to hire draymen. It is now proposed to pave that portion of North River street, and the common council, last evening, adopted an order introduced by Alderman Baines, prohibiting the use of any paved street for a dray stand. There was quite a boom in street paving last evening. As previously stated in The Gazette, Alderman Smith presented a petition signed by a majority of property owners on West Milwaukee street, asking that the street from High to Academy street be paved. This petition was accepted, and the city engineer was directed to prepare plans and specifications. The preliminary steps were also taken, by Alderman Baines, for the paving of North River street from Milwaukee street north to the fire station. Steps were also taken for the improvement of Fifth avenue, the matter being referred to the highway, street and bridge committee to report the necessary work to be done. On favorable report of Inspector D. H. Billings, the South River street pavement was accepted.

Alderman Sutherland presented an ordinance, which was passed under suspension of rules, amending the school bond ordinance, making twelve bonds payable in 1913, instead of six bonds, as provided in the original ordinance.

City Library Directors Named.

Mayor Thoroughgood appointed Miss Gertrude Cobb, Stanley B. Smith and Orrin W. Bemis directors of the public library, in place of Miss Gertrude Cobb, Edward M. Hyzer and Miss Mary Pease, whose terms had expired. The appointments were confirmed.

A petition for an electric light at the corner of High and Ravine streets was referred to the gas committee. The bond of Health Officer Robinson was approved. An invitation was received from Manager McGinley, inviting the council to attend the ball game at Athletic park on Thursday afternoon, the same was accepted. Alderman Baines of the finance committee reported in favor of allowing sundry bills, which was concurred in. The bill of the water company, $189.50 was allowed. Alderman Smith, of the gas committee, reported in favor of changing the electric light, from Franklin and Wall streets to the corner of Franklin to West Bluff. Adopted. Alderman Child, of the special committee on charter amendments, was granted further time to consider the questions involved.

Many City Orders Adopted.

Orders were adopted as follows: By Alderman Kothman—For sidewalks on Franklin and Galena streets. By Alderman Cunningham—Granting Owen Keenan the use of portions of Park and Galena streets for storing building material. By Alderman Child—Directing the purchasing committee to purchase fire department supplies. By Alderman Winslow—For block crosswalk across Benton avenue on Milton avenue, for the removal of gas lamp post at corner of Main and Court streets. By Alderman Rich—For sidewalks on Bluff street, third ward. By Alderman Baines—Directing the street commissioner to rake up the stones on Ravine street, west of Madison street, also directing the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for paving, with cedar blocks, North River street, adjoining the premises of the First National bank, F. S. Eldred and George Searcliff. There being no other business the council adjourned.

TOO MUCH TENT EVANGELISTS.

"An Observer" suggests that the City Has Had Enough of Such Work.

EDITOR GAZETTE—I have read your articles on Messrs. Welch & Co., the self announced tent evangelists, and watched their operations with some interest. While I grant, as the law unquestionably does, the utmost liberty in christian worship, I do not think these tent howlers have kept within such bounds. When they see fit to attack all agencies of moral good and christian teaching, those that have stood the test of centuries past, and that are acknowledged by all christian communities the world over and as leaders and teachers of christian worship it is high time the good people of Janesville rose en masse and demanded their removal. They have made themselves odious in the light of all fair-minded, intelligent people, and their continuance in our city is but heaping insult upon injury. Why tolerate them longer? That they have gathered a small following of converts who no doubt are conscientious in their daily attendance cannot be denied, but that is no just reason why they should be tolerated. The people of this country are so constituted that one may start out (either man or woman), and with a sufficient amount of cheek and gall soon have a following, no matter what the theories expounded are, even though they go so far as to defy the established laws of our country as evidenced recently by Debs & Co. I do not claim to be a christian or an angel, just a common citizen, always sensitive when the interests of American liberty are abridged or assailed, and I say, let the imposters' battery be silenced, in the interest of the established schools of christian morality. DISTRIBUTING NEW STAMPS.

Five Hundred Thousand of the Last Issue Sent Out.

The postoffice department has commenced the distribution of the new postage stamps furnished under the recent contract with the bureau of engraving and printing. So far only about 500,000 stamps have been supplied to the department and they are forwarded to the postoffice as soon as requisitions for them are received. Of the postage due stamps about 400,000 or 500,000 have been completed and these have been sent where postmasters have made requisitions. The only other stamp in readiness for general use is the new 6-cent stamp.

Albert L. Littlejohn.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Littlejohn of Aurora, Ill., but formerly of this city, will be saddened by the intelligence of their sad bereavement in the death of their only child, Albert Lawrence, a very bright and intelligent boy of three and a half years, on Sunday night, July 27, of cholera infantum. The child was gifted with that richness of endowments in many respects by which loving parents are charmed into unbounded attachments and filled and delighted by the brightest of hopes. Only those who have the experience will be able measurably to understand the painfulness of such a loss or the depths of such a grief.

All that could be done for the little sufferer was at hand, both in respect to medicine and nursing care, but all proved unavailing. Appropriate religious services were held at the residence, No. 361 Lincoln avenue, Aurora, Ill., on Monday evening, after which the remains, accompanied by the family, were conveyed by train to Ellisville, Fulton county, Ill., and interred in the village cemetery the day following. The afflicted family have the sympathy of all. D. B. B.

JOHNSON IS BEHIND SPEEDY JOE WONDER

INDIANA BUYERS COULDN'T DRIVE THE HORSE.

They Finally Sent to Cookville For the Two Hundred Pound Driver—Rain Needed Around the County—Milton Junction Man Accidentally Hurt By a Hatchet.

COOKSVILLE, July 31.—Webb Johnson has been called to drive the horse he used to own, Joe Wonder. The people that bought Joe, never could get the speed out of him that Johnson did, despite Johnson's two hundred pounds of flesh. Several from here attended the assembly at Madison. Mrs. Alex Richardson made her father, J. K. Porter, a birthday party last week, and about sixty partook of a tempting supper out on the lawn. The Good Templars have been doing some good work the last quarter, and have more than doubled their membership. Last Saturday night they elected officers for the coming quarter as follows: C. T.—Chester Gillie, V. T.—Mary Leadle, R. S.—Kate Preston, F. S.—Earnest Miller, C.—Grace Speer, T.—William Leadle, M.—Lyman Whaley, S.—Harry Dennison. Mrs. John Miller passed away last Friday morning. She had been in poor health for two or three years. She leaves a loving husband and three children, the eldest a daughter fourteen years of age, and two sons, who are younger. They have our deepest sympathy in this great sorrow. She was buried at her home in Verona on Sunday. Elder Davidson, of Two Rivers, was in town two days last week, calling on friends. Mrs. Mayo spent last week at her home here. Mr. Kerin was called to Madison last Friday to attend the funeral of his nephew.

Y. M. C. A. DOWNED IN MILTON.

Blue Diamonds Proved To Be Too Much For the Visitors.

MILTON, July 31.—The Y. M. C. A. club and the Blue Diamonds had a lively game of ball Friday afternoon. Although the visitors were a third heavier than the Diamonds, the home team won hands down, the score being 19 to 8, in their favor. Mrs. E. L. Spence, son and daughter have moved to Genoa Junction, where Mr. Spence is located, and that is to be their future home. E. S. Fuller, of Stillwater, Minn., was in town Friday on business connected with his mother's estate. S. B. Davy and wife spent Saturday at Lake Monona. Miss Agnes Morton, of St. Paul, was the guest of Mrs. Jennie Morton this week. Rev. George B. Shaw occupied the pulpit at the Seventh-Day Baptist church Saturday morning. Deacon Saunders is improving in health and was able to ride out last week. Dr. Borden's injuries were not as serious as many feared and he is already able to be out, but is very sore and lame. The drought is a serious matter and the corn crop will be a failure unless we have rain soon. S. B. Davy and O. D. Crumb have bought new wheels from Babcock, the bicycle man. They are called "Duke." The fall term of Milton college begins four weeks from today, Aug. 29. The tobacco crop needs rain badly and there are but few good pieces of the weed in this locality at the best.

Professor J. B. Borden, who was called home on account of his father's injuries, returned to his work in the Madison summer school Tuesday. Cards announcing the marriage of H. E. Holmes of this village, and Miss Marcia Jones of Clinton, are out, the event occurring on Thursday, August 2. Rev. S. L. Maxson occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning. MAGAZINES OF THE MONTH.

Hypnotism In Surgery.

An article of great interest in the August Arena is on "The Value of Hypnotism as a means of Surgical Anesthesia" by James R. Cooke, M. D., in which he gives an account of some of his experiences as a physician in the use of hypnotism as a substitute for morphine, chloroform and other opiates. He claims from his practice that hypnotism can and will supply the place now occupied in medicine and surgery by morphine, etc., in at least from 75 to 80 per cent of all the cases in which these drugs are used. Incidentally he combats the popular idea that hypnotism is some sort of magic or jugglery of trance mediums and such people. It does not depend on any hidden mysterious force inherent in a few gifted individuals; its operation is simply the intensification of one idea by some form of impression made upon the nervous system. It possesses other advantages over morphine, chloral, etc., inasmuch as it does not fasten any morbid and fatal habits upon the patient.

Littell's Living Age.

The following are a few of the many interesting and valuable papers which have appeared in the July issue of Littell's Living Age: "Lord Wolseley's Marbledborough," by General Sir Archibald Alison, G. C. A.; "The Proposed Nile Reservoir," by J. P. Mahaffy and Frank Dillon; "In the River Pei-ho," by William Laird Clowes; "The Queen and Lord Palmerston," by Reginald B. Brett; "The Problem of Constantinople," by Frederick Harrison; "Marlborough," by Andrew Lang; "A French Ambassador at the Court of Catherine II.," by Mrs. d'Arcy Collyer; "Some Great Churches of France," by Walter Pater; "Handel: Man and Musician," by Frederick J. Crowest; and "The Art of Dying," by I. A. Taylor.

North American Review.

Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith contributes to the August number of the North American Review an able article dealing with a question upon which he is peculiarly well fitted to write—"The Resources and Development of the South." It is an important addition to the series of articles by cabinet ministers which the Review has recently given to its readers.

The Season For August.

Throughout the book will be found handsome designs suitable for every occasion: evening, morning and promenade toilettes for home and out door wear. The children are not forgotten, and numerous quaint little toilettes for children of both sexes will be found plainly illustrated and described.

WINANS MAY HEAD THE STATE TICKET.

MILWAUKEE MANAGERS BRING IN HIS NAME.

He Will Be Favored Because of His Attitude Toward the Co-Employe Bill of 1891—General Bragg Is Further In the Background than He Was in 1892.

There is some talk of heading the democratic slate with John Winans of this city for governor. The Milwaukee Sentinel says that, Mr. Winans is being pushed by some democrats, because of his record on the co-employe bill in 1891, so it is said. Governor Peck is understood to have said that he would make no effort to secure a renomination, but his friends feel satisfied that he would consent to run if renominated. It is well known that the governor likes his "job" as much at least as he did two years ago, and some say that he would like it even much more. John Hunner will no doubt make an effort for the nomination, and he will have the backing of Collector Murphy and the anti-Wall influences in Milwaukee. A friend of General Bragg said yesterday that the general considered himself out of politics for good and that he would not even attend the democratic convention in September next. The breach in the democratic party between the Bragg and Vilas factions is as wide now as it ever was. The general is blamed for the recent attacks on Vilas in the Chicago Times, and that Vilas' friends will never forget. On the whole the democratic convention promises to be a tame affair. There will be no hot contests for any of the places. The present incumbents are not anxious to run this year, but they may be forced on the ticket with some new nominee for governor.

The recent letter from the judge of awards on baking powders at the Chicago World's Fair, exposing the fraudulent claim of a Chicago house that its baking powder had received the highest award for strength, purity, excellence, etc., is a scathing rebuke to those manufacturers of cheap baking powders who have no regard for the truth, but habitually seek, in their public announcements, to deceive consumers. The judge of awards states that no such award was given to the Chicago concern, and has notified it that it must cease publishing his name in connection with its false statements.

One of the most remarkable timber belts in the world stands in Humboldt and Mendocino counties, California. It embraces 4,125 square miles, containing 132,000,000,000 feet of timber. With the aid of the microscope scientists have found the age of some of these trees to be nearly 3,000 years. Some of the fallen trees have remained where they fell for 800 to 1,000 years, so it is estimated, with scarcely any deterioration of the wood.

On the Safe Side.

Everybody knows that it is a good place to be, but everybody does not take measures to be there. An efficient preventative faces up on the safe side of incipient disease, and there is no one more reliable than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases where the kidneys are inactive, which is but the preliminary to various destructive maladies, which disregarded have a fatal termination. Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, oedema, are but the outgrowths of neglected action of the kidneys and bladder. They should be checked at the outset with the Bitters, which will prevent their progress by arousing the renal organs to activity, and thus place those who resort to this saving medicine on the safe side. This preservative of safety also conquers constipation, liver complaint, malarial fever, nervousness and dyspepsia.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Hand this notice to any first class druggist and he will get the Remedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

A republican convention in and for the Seventeenth senatorial district, will be held at Brodhead on Tuesday, the fourth day of September, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of re-nominating a candidate for state senator and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. Each voting precinct in the district will be entitled to one delegate in the convention.

THE PEOPLE RULE THIS YEAR.

This is the people's year in Wisconsin politics. Machine dictation has been disregarded from first to last and a ticket has been put in the field that means victory. In like measure, the clear, ringing, honest, sound republican state platform means victory. The temper of the people of the Badger state, disgusted with democratic incompetency, indignant at democratic unscrupulousness, impatient of business disaster precipitated and prolonged by democratic impotency and folly means overwhelming success for the republican party at the election next November. There could have been no better selection of candidates. All the aspirants for places upon the ticket were good men, deserving of public honor. Those chosen after careful deliberation by the representatives of the people possess in the highest degree all the qualifications necessary under the existing unusual conditions, and will command enthusiastic popular support.

WINANS IN DEMAND.

When democrats felt reasonably certain of success, the Janesville Nestor, John Winans, was kept in the background. This year nothing but a banquet of crow can be looked for, and Mr. Winans is invited to come right out and sit at Boss Wall's right hand. He is likely to be nominated for governor whether he will or no, and will be left to spend his energy in a fruitless defense of the capitol ring's iniquity.

Aldermen made sharp comments last night on the course of the Illinois Trust & Savings bank advertising the $52,000 of Janesville school bonds as one of its "safe investments" after declining to receive them on the ground that they were not legally issued.

In Maj. W. H. Upham his party has found a man clean and upright, with a good war record and a man of means. It becomes more and more evident that he was the strongest man of all the candidates.

There isn't an ambiguous or a doubtful line in the whole republican platform this year. It is a platform drawn by men whose only thought was to give their pledges to the people as clearly and unmistakably as possible.

KNIGHTS ARE ALL IN A STEW.

Pythians May Not Be Able to Take Advantage of Reduced Rates.

A special rate of one fare for the round trip to Chicago and return from all points in the Western Passenger association's territory has been granted by the railroads to all who desire to attend the Knights of Pythias' conclave at Washington next month. The Wisconsin knights are, however, in considerable of a stew because of the early sale of these tickets and the short time in which, they can be had, which, they claim, will practically shut out the Wisconsin members from taking advantage of the rates to Chicago. The roads have designated August 23 and 24 only as days of sale, while the conclave does not open until August 27, and knights here say that the camp at Washington will not be ready for receiving the uniformed knights before the 25. Consequently they do not want to leave home until Sunday, August 26, too late to take advantage of the rates. Unless the matter of sale is adjusted to make it possible to purchase tickets and start as late as the 26 the indications are that a large majority of Wisconsin knights will not receive any benefits from the rate and that they will pay full fare.

MILWAUKEE'S BRING A STIFF NINE

They Will Play With a Vengeance Next Thursday Afternoon.

Janesville boys might have beaten the Milwaukee nine as it stood at the beginning of the season, but to beat it now is a different thing. Several crack men from the southern league have been signed and a new captain is in charge. The Milwaukeees will come here fresh from a two days' rest. Yesterday they played the last of a series of games with Grand Rapids, and they do not play another league game until Friday of this week. Captain Twitchell will give the boys a thorough drilling today and he says he sees a chance for great improvement in the team work.

The A. O. H. Will Celebrate.

The picnic of Division No. 3, A. O. H. will take place tomorrow at Crystal Springs Park. James Toohy and the Bower City band will furnish the music, the former will ride in an Irish jaunting car. All three of the steamers will run. Judge M. V. Gannon of Chicago, will deliver the address of the day. Rev. Father Campbell of Elroy, W's., and Mayor Thoroughgood will also have something to say. The games and dancing will be a special feature and the day will end with a grand ball, the music to be furnished by Smith's orchestra. Altogether it will be one of the most enjoyable times of the season.

Nature's Thoughtfulness.
His wife is back!
No more at night,
When seems to him the town a somber night,
Too dull and gray,
May he go forth with paint to make it bright.
He has had his day;
His wife is back!

But who is that,
With glossy hat
And step as springy as the step of fawn
Who leaves at night, returning with the dawn?
It is the other man whose wife's just gone!

He'll see the painting done!
He'll have the fun!
The town shall never stay
So dull and gray;
His wife has gone!

So gentle nature makes
A compensation sweet;
She gives for what she takes,
And it is meet!

As where the flower is plucked another springs,
So she, providing for a myriad things,
The town may not be left to stay
All dull and gray;
One wife comes home today,
Another goes away.

Signaling at Sea.

Admiral Sir Wunt Grubbe has made interesting experiments for the transmission of signals at long distance by rays from an electric search light reflected against the clouds. The rays from a lamp of 100,000 candle power were directed toward the clouds in the manner of a reflector and interrupted conformably to the rules of a code of heliographic signals. The signals produced in this manner were comprehended on a vessel more than fifty-five miles away from the admiral's ship.—La Nature.

How They Multiply.

Germs of contagious diseases are capable of multiplying themselves with marvelous rapidity. A single germ, when placed in surroundings favorable to its growth, quickly divides into two. Each of these then divides itself again, and so on, the number soon reaching into thousands. It has been estimated that by the end of twenty-four hours one single germ will have multiplied itself into more than 16,500,000 germs.

Young Seals.

Young seals do not know how to swim. They have to become gradually accustomed to the water, either by entering it to paddle about for themselves or by being carried into it in the mother's jaws. They have great fear of the waves that break into foam, and, as soon as they see one approaching, they take to flight in terror, and do not turn around until they have ascended to a very high place above the sea. At the end of fifty or sixty days they unite in small bands and form a school of natation.

Arms and Legs of a Baby Found In

Mother Who Was Following a
Reaper—Rhody Whalen's Brother
Placed in Limbo.

A DEFECTIVE walk in front of John Collins' home, Washington street, may be the cause of an expensive suit, with the possibility of the city being mulcted to the tune of five thousand dollars and costs. Mrs. Hugh M. Joyce was passing over this walk last evening when a loose board raised and caught her foot, as she was moving forward. The result was a heavy fall. Mrs. Joyce was so seriously injured that a surgeon was summoned. No bones were broken, the injuries appearing to be of an internal nature, although she received some severe bruises. She is confined to her bed as the result of the fall.

A GERMAN farmer living near Spring Green was cutting oats with a self-binder and his wife was engaged in shocking the bundles. They had a little child with them in the field one and a half years old, and had put it away in a shock of grain to sleep. It awoke and crawled into the standing grain unknown to them, and the father drove the binder over it without noticing it, and the first intimation they received of a horrible accident, was when the mother found a leg of the child in a bundle of grain and an arm in another.

PROFESSOR HENRY W. FLANEGAN of Danville, Ill., spent last night in the city, the guest of W. M. Laughlin and wife. Mr. Flanagan is an old schoolmate of Mr. Laughlin's, they having been barefooted boys together. It is about ten years since they met. Mr. Flanagan is now principal of the public schools at Danville, Ill., where he has been eight years. He was a delegate to the republican state convention last week at Springfield, Ill., and is now a candidate for county superintendent of schools in Vermillion county.

REV. J. D. COLE performed a marriage ceremony Sunday night that surprised two Janesville families. The happy groom was Edward Wadsworth Russell, son of J. W. Russell, and the bride Miss Edith Mary Arnold, daughter of ex-Alderman and Mrs. H. G. Arnold. The young people attended union services together, then sauntered to the domine's residence, were made one, and left on the 1:15 a. m. train for the north.

Low prices are like the green goggles which fooled the horse into eating shavings for hay. THE Young Ladies of Christ Church will serve home made ice cream, ices and cakes on the lawn at C. T. Winslow's residence, 107 South Second street, Tuesday evening July 31, from 7:00 to 10:30 p. m. The Mandolin orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody is cordially invited.

MADAM, have you a pretty foot? If not, we can dress it so you will accuse it of being the prettiest; and if you have, we can add to its beauty, and there will be no pain, for we are in reality "the painless foot fitters" in Janesville. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

NO ARC LIGHTS GLOW ON THE EAST SIDE.

HALF THE TOWN IS LEFT IN DARKNESS.

Accident to the Machinery at Captain Norcross' Plant Results In the Stopping of One Dynamo—Repairs Are Being Made As Rapidly as Possible.

Captain Norcross has been very unfortunate so far with his illumination of the city streets by electric lights. The first obstruction to be encountered in mid-summer was the heavy foliage of the shade trees. In many streets the twelve hundred-candle power arc lights might as well have been hung under a bushel as far as lighting more than the street corners where the light was suspended. Steps were taken to have the trees uniformly trimmed, so that the lights might have better effect.

Almost simultaneously with extinguishing the gas lamp, an accident occurred at the electric light power house, resulting in the total wreck of the gearing of a water wheel. There being no duplicates at hand, the accident compelled a shutting down of one of the dynamos, leaving the east side of the river in darkness. Captain Norcross is working night and day to remedy the difficulty but it may not be remedied before tomorrow evening. The wrecked gear is now at the Doty Machine shop, where it is being repaired. Every cog in the large circle was broken, and new cogs are being made, the work being very slow.

EVANSVILLE SCANDAL AN UGLY ON

Many Women Called From the Village as Divorce Court Witnesses.

The Howard divorce case from Evansville is the attraction at the court house to-day. Visitors pack the court house chambers eagerly catching every word of the plaintiff's testimony. There are a large number of ladies present, some with small babies, occupying prominent seats, waiting to be called to the witness stand. As intimated in The Gazette last week, the testimony is revealing morsels of scandal in that quiet village.

"There may be two men in the case before much progress is made in the testimony," said one of the witnesses who was patiently waiting to be called this afternoon. "But before the end is reached there will be more than one woman in it." Very little publicity has been given to the affair, and it is claimed that most of these present today from Evansville have been summoned as witnesses on one side or the other.

SCARLET FEVER CASES IN TOWN.

Two Little People Sick on Terrace Street—One Will Die.

There are two severe cases of scarlet fever at this time on Terrace street. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. McCarthy, 8 Terrace street, is lying at death's door with the terrible disease, and physicians say the little one cannot recover. Another little child in the same neighborhood is also very low with the same disease. Both homes are quarantined.

JACKSON STREET IS OBSTRUCTED

Pile of Stone Chippings May Cause a Wreck Some Day.

EDITOR GAZETTE—There is a good chance on North Jackson street for an accident that would give ground for a suit against the city for damage. A pile of stone chippings, that might easily wreck a vehicle, has lain a little above the railroad crossing for nearly two months. Where is our street commissioner? A TAX PAYER.

Feeding a Locomotive.

Mr. Locomotive Fireman, tell us what do you do when your train is coming to an upgrade piece of road? Chuck more fuel into the furnace, don't you? Cram her full of it and make her jump! That's good rail roading and first-rate merchandising. July and August are an upgrade pair of rails in dry goods retailing. So here goes more profit fuel into the furnace. Don't spare a pound of it. First we had leas. As they are light and filmy they burned well and the steam went away up. Now we are using more substantial fuel, silks, Cheney Brothers' twenty-four inch best quality at 59 cents. Whoever enters our store will discover two great masses, one of silks and one of silk buyers. Bort, Bailey & Co.

BOND SALE PUT OFF TO OBLIGE BANKS

MAYOR THOROUGHGOOD OR-DERS BRIEF POSTPONEMENT

Bids Were to Have Been Opened at 3 O'clock This Afternoon But Two Janesville Concerns Wanted More Time to Consider the Situation—The Mayor's Opinion.

Janesville's school bonds were to have been sold at 3 o'clock this afternoon but the sale was postponed. Local banks are among the bidders and they wanted a little more time to consider their bids.

In explaining his attitude Mayor Thoroughgood said to a Gazette reporter this forenoon.

"I have propositions from a Chicago party now here together with the Rock County and the First National banks of this city. I consider the school bonds as good property as any in the country and do not propose to give them away. I have given the Illinois Trust & Savings Bank all the chance they asked for, being anxious to realize all the bonus possible for the city, but today they have not money enough to purchase them. I believe them to be unreliable parties, and if as mayor of Janesville, I should ever be called upon to pass on their business methods, I should do so in a way that would not leave a very high impression of the Chicago company."

BOY FELL FROM A LODGE WINDOW.

Playful Companions Pushed Him Off the Sill to the Sidewalk.

Most anything is likely to come out of the front store windows of Good Templars' hall in Monroe. At their last meeting several parties made vigorous complaints against the Templars throwing water and lemonade slops out of the front windows regardless of the pedestrians on the sidewalk below. Last night as Charles Keener was locking the front door of the store underneath the hall right down in front of him came Adelbert Miller. He struck the sidewalk with his feet and fell over. His eyes stuck out of their sockets and with an oath he sprang to his feet and ran up stairs. It was a lucky escape for both the young man and Keener.

Miller was sitting in front of the window with his feet out, when he was pushed off by Elden Milligan, a gay and festive youth not possessed of an abundance of good sense. Miller struck an electric light wire with his arm. It broke the force of the fall somewhat and he dropped to the sidewalk.

HE WAS ON TIME.

Even if He Had to Dress on Board the Street Car.

Since the days when the aborigine determined to deck his form in leaves, the matter of making a toilet has always consumed a portion of every man's lifetime; of some, a very little, the tramp included, of course.

Toilets have been made in some of the most outlandish sorts of places and some of the most outlandish sorts of ways. Toilets have been made on time, but it remained for a young man of St. Louis to beat the record in this matter.

One morning recently as a St. Louis street car was dashing cityward with its customary freight of folks on duty's errand bound, the passengers within were surprised at the sight of a young man rushing from a house, bounding across the street and boarding the car, with his hat, vest, coat and collar in his hand.

He was a fine-looking fellow and as one might judge by appearance, evidently a clerk employed in some one of the big stores. Once safely landed on the car he laid his coat, hat and vest on the seat while he buttoned on the collar and whipped the tie into place. Then he drew from the pocket of the vest he had just donned a comb and mirror and leisurely proceeded to fix his hair and moustache. This finished, he drew on his coat, placed his hat upon his head, and with a quick survey of his person, a few sweeps of the hand to carry away any lint that might have stuck upon his trousers, he glanced about the car with an air of absolute unconcern. He was dressed and on time for the office.

BABY AND THE SNAKE.

The Child Fed and Petted a Deadly Black Snake and Was Not Hurt.

Some snake stories were being told at the hotel when B. H. Winterbower of Meade county, Kentucky, said: "I can tell you one that is true to the letter, and quite as surprising as any of your yarns. A sister-in-law of mine, living in the vicinity of Garrett, Ky., had a baby girl hardly 2 years old, and not able to talk plainly. She contracted a habit of taking a cup of bread and milk every morning and strolling off into some high weeds back of the horse pond. Her mother thought nothing of it, until finally her curiosity was aroused, as the child could not be prevailed upon to sit in the house and eat, and would say in infantile prattle, 'Give pretty sing some.'"

One day her mother followed her, and the sight she beheld almost caused her to swoon. She screamed, grabbed the child and rushed to the house. She was too agitated for a time to speak, and then only in disjointed sentences, until she had torn the child's clothing off and examined it. Finding she was unhurt, she became calmer, and told what she had discovered. She saw the child sitting in the weeds with her bread and milk in her lap, and in front of her a big black snake. She was feeding the snake with the bread and milk. The child showed not the slightest fear. On the contrary she was in high glee, and seemed to be delighted with her strange pet. The snake was killed the next morning. The child seemed to miss it, and for a week or more she had a big cry at not being allowed to go out and feed it."

UNABLE TO NEGOTIATE.

Inventor's Skill and Peddler's Eloquence Were Alike Untempting.

"You're taken up all of my time you're going to," said the woman at the kitchen door, wrathfully. "I've told you I don't want any pins, towels, soap, lead pencils, stove blacking, combs or tin spoons. I'll give you just ten seconds to get away from here!"

"That reminds me ma'am," said the peddler, opening his package again, "that I've got a little arrangement here for the accurate measurement of time, so you don't have to guess at it. It's generally used in boiling eggs and consists, as you see, of a little glass filled at one end with sand which by simply inverting runs slowly through the wasp-waist in the center down to the other end, registering accurately each and every time you use it and allowing about three minutes and twenty seconds for the boiling of an egg, which, as you know, is about the proper time if the water is boiling when the egg is put in, unless you want the egg boiled hard, and every authority on wholesome diet will tell you, madam, that hard-boiled egg is unwholesome, causing indigestion and sometimes redness of the nose, for which there is no cosmetic that will."

By active exertions he managed to reach the corner of the kitchen and get around it before the dipperful of boiling water got there.

Curious Effects of Frost.

An egg expands when it is frozen so much that the increased bulk breaks the shell. Apples, on the contrary, contract to such an extent that a full barrel will shrink until the top layer will be a foot below the chime. When the frost has been slowly and carefully drawn out they again assume their normal size and appearance. Apples can be transported when the mercury is twenty degrees below zero. Potatoes once touched by frost are ruined.

A Happy Country.

Serious crime is almost unknown in Norway. The punishment for murder is decapitation at the block by the public executioner; but during the five years I lived there, says a traveler, there was but one murder and no execution, for the simple reason that the murderer was never identified.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

She Was Crushed.

"Is this a smoking car?" she asked, in choice Bostonese, as she peered through her girlish spectacles into the unenclosed conductor's face.

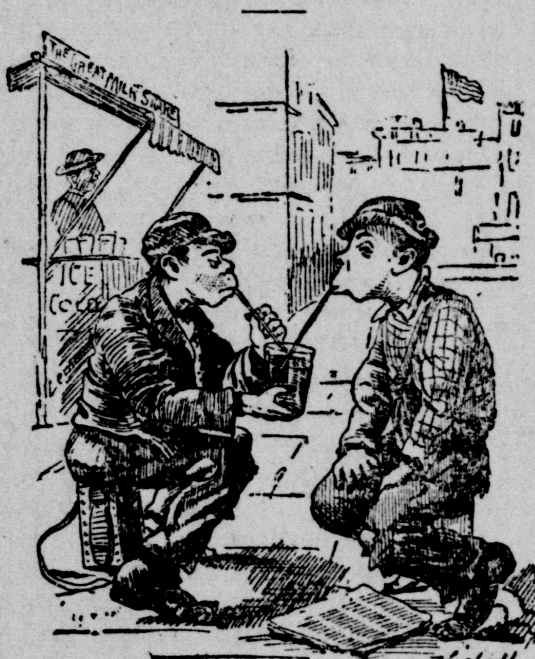

"No miss," he answered, with a glad, joyous feeling that for once he was getting even with a woman, "it is not."

She disappeared into the interior of the car, but in a few moments came out livid with wrath. "You—told—me," she said, in icy tones, "that it was not a smoking car." "It is not, miss. None of our cars smoke. It is the smoker's car."—Detroit Free Press.

The Secret of Government.

Bess is one of those astute juvenile autocrats who are strangely gifted in analyzing the secret and extent of their dominion over adoring relatives. "Oh, no," she was one day overheard to confide to another small girl, "grandma can't make me mind at all—she can't do a thing with me—but grandpa knows how to manage me." "How does he do it, Bess?" asked the impatient male cousin who was eavesdropping in a hammock on the piazza. "Why, he waits till he sees what I'm going to do and then he tells me to do it."

Remarkably Considerate.

A Cincinnati newspaper reports a striking manifestation of amiability on the part of a little maiden of that city. A beautiful new doll had just been given to her, and as she sat holding it and singing to it her mother noticed that the old one was not in sight.

"What have you done with Beatrice?" asked the mother.

"I've put her away," answered the little girl. "If she saw me loving my new baby it might hurt her feelings."

The Common View.

"Don't you believe the world is growing better?" asked the enthusiastic young woman.

"Well," replied the old gentleman, "the older people are less pig-headed and prejudiced than were elderly people when I was a youth. But I do not think the young men of the present day have half the enterprise or judgment of those of my time."—Indianapolis Journal.

OLD CLO'.

New Industry That Promises Good Results for Seller and Purchaser.

"Have you any children, and would you like to buy some cheap clothing for them?" This came from a voice that came from a huge moving bundle of clothing at the back door the other morning.

Here was an innovation in peddlism. The clothing club man had been around and all the rest of his ilk, but this was the first of this kind seen. He was invited in and negotiations for some of the stock were opened. There were boys' trousers for seven cents, a whole suit for fifteen cents, and girls' ruffled frocks for five cents, and various other things for ridiculous low prices.

A purchase of twenty-five cents' worth made a favorable impression on the bargain man. It needed only a glance to see that the things were made over from larger garments. With the influence of a cup of coffee and a plate of cakes the made-over clothes man was easily inveigled into telling a short history of the make and origin of this new industry. He had a large family. His wife and four girls, all well grown who could obtain no employment, had made some clothes for a neighbor's children in the evening. This suggested a new manufacturing and mercantile field. The head of the house who sorted rags in a warehouse, set about making a collection of larger garments of the sort that could be reduced in size. Sometimes he begged them and sometimes he bought them. The garments to be made over were washed before the cutting and sewing begins. A pair of trousers will make two pairs for a boy 10 or 12 years old. A wrapper or a dress will make four or five dresses for girls from 5 to 10. The clothes are all well made and clean, and the fit is probably as good as the average. They are primitive in style, perhaps, but what can one expect for a dime? There is no profuse display of buttons. The mother cuts and prepares for the sewing and the girls sew, while the father procures the material and does the selling. Sometimes they net for their week's work as much as $12, sometimes more.

FIVE HUNDRED MILES.

Railroad Building in 1894 Smaller Than for a Number of Years.

During the six months of the present year, up to July 1, only 495 miles of new railroad were built in this country. That is less than for any previous half year for many years. It is only a third of what was built in a similar period of 1891, 700 miles less than during the first half of 1892, and 530 miles below the first half of 1893. The total track built in each of those years was 2,585 miles in 1893, 4,010 miles in 1892 and 4,012 miles in 1891. Usually the proportion of new track laid in the first half of the year is between thirty and forty per cent of the total reported for the year. If past experience is to be repeated this year, this report of 495 miles built means that only about 1,500 miles will be built in 1894, and such a low figure as that has not been reported since accurate records have been kept. But there is good reason to believe that the total of new railroad constructed in the twelve months will be larger than the result reported for the half year may seem to promise, judging only from the proportion of work that has heretofore been done in the early part of the year. Railroad men are surprised to know that even 500 miles of new road have been built, so quietly has the work gone on, generally on short lines widely distributed over the country, few of them making connections with roads. What will be done during the rest of the year depends, of course, on the changes that may occur in the state of financial affairs of the country. But it is a fact of much significance that the amount of new road in which the investment made is too great to be lost by any failure to complete the projects is probably larger than at this time last year.

Consumption of Meat.

Out of a steer weighing 1,000 pounds there is obtained only 180 pounds of really choice meat, two ribs and two loins, which are sold to fancy butchers and hotel men for eighteen to twenty cents a pound, while the rest of the animal is worth only from three to eleven cents. An average sized hotel of the first class takes $1,400 worth of beef a month. By the time the bone is taken out every pound of beef that goes on the table in a well kept hotel costs fifty cents a pound, which goes far toward explaining the logic of the rates charged by such establishments.

Increase of Crime in Hot Weather.

The increase of crimes of violence during a heated term cannot fail to suggest to the student of social science the multiplication of comfort-giving appliances—and notably of fresh water and cooling shade—as agencies likely to diminish the number of murders and suicides in cities. If poor people could find more comfort at home they would not flock together into places in which bad drink, added to the abnormal excitement produced by the high temperature, soon deprives them of caution and urges them to violence.

Selling Land in France.

Anciently, in many parts of France, when a sale of land took place, it was the custom to have twelve adult witnesses accomplished by twelve little boys; and, when the price of the land was paid and its surrender took place, the ears of the boys were pulled and they were beaten severely, so that the pain thus inflicted should make an impression upon their memory, and, if required afterward, they might bear witness to the sale.

A FLAG.

Placed on the Grave of One of the Boston Tea Party.

Just south of the proposed entrance of La Salle street, Chicago, an American flag fluttered over the grass of Lincoln park the other day. It was placed there by Josiah Lombard, George H. Fergus and Fernando Jones to mark the grave of David Kennison, who was there interred with military honors forty-two years ago. As young men they witnessed that procession, and they alone knew the location of the grave in the once thickly populated cemetery that is now Lincoln park. The mark of the Sons of the American Revolution and a bronze tablet bearing inscriptions telling of the leading facts in David Kennison's career were attached to the flagstaff.

Kennison was born in the province of Maine, November 17, 1736. He was one of a club of seventeen which held secret meetings to deliberate on grievances offered by England to the young colonies. He was one of the bold Americans who threw the tea overboard in Boston harbor, and though he fought through the revolutionary war, he achieved no distinction such as in after years was conferred upon him as one of the disguised men in the Boston tea party.

He saw service in the war of 1812, and after its close lived in New York state. In 1874 he went to Chicago. For several years he lived in the family of Judge Henry Fuller on Indiana avenue. He was a pensioner and the oldest man in Chicago, and a figure in the celebrations of the town. He was 115 years old when he died. The Sons of Maine, the Sons of Massachusetts, and the Chicago Pioneers, it is said, will unite in the erection of a granite pedestal on the spot marked by the flag. It will bear a bronze bust of Kennison, and will be cared for by these societies.

SAM WELLER.

An English Comedian Who Gave Dickens Ideas for the Character.

It would appear that the original Sam Weller of Dickens' "Pickwick Papers" fame was a certain Sam Vale, an English low comedian, who, in the earlier years of the present century, was very popular in the southern part of England. In the year 1811, and for a few years afterward, he acquired quite a musical reputation in a farce called "The Boarding House," written by Beasley. In this piece he played the part of Simon Spotteddash, a person who indulged in odd and whimsical sayings. "Come on, as the man said to the tight boot," "I am down on you, as the extinguisher said to the candle," "Let every one take care of himself, as the donkey said when dancing among the chickens," are fair illustrations of the witticisms in the course of that play, the resemblance between them and some of the sayings of Sam Weller being very marked.

In private life Vale was noted for his wit and many good things are credited to him. He was a man of excellent temper, had no enemies, and the good humor which pervaded all his sayings, together with the drollery of his manner, gave an enhanced value to his witticisms. His sayings were called Sam Valerisms, and on the appearance of the "Pickwick Papers," in 1836, the character of Sam Weller was generally recognized as a portrait of Vale. The comedian died in 1848 at the age of 51.

A DOG'S ACUTE EAR.

He Knows When a Particular Organ Pipe Is Opened.

"Dogs have most acute ears in detecting differences in the quality of sound," said a musician lately. "I have at home a large Newfoundland which is a great lover of music. No matter in what portion of the house I may be, he always comes to me when I begin to play, lying close to the piano. I have an old organ. It is one of those instruments with many stops and but few good qualities. I think I have been able after much endeavor to distinguish two different qualities of tone in all of the long row of stops, but my dog made it apparent to me that my ears were not as acute as his."

"I play for variety upon the organ, notwithstanding its being antiquated, and my dog seems to enjoy this as much as the piano, all except one stop. Whenever I pull that out he rises to his feet suddenly and commences to growl and bark at me in a most vicious manner, sometimes biting at the organ. Now, to my ear that stop makes no difference in the sound of the organ. I have tried hard to detect the distinctive quality which aggravates the dog's nature, but without success. I have tried to fool the old fellow by commencing a tune on one stop and suddenly pulling out the obnoxious one. He never fails to notice this, although the sound to me is just the same."

CURES OTHERS.

A TERRIBLE CASE OF DROPSY CURED.

JNO. MALLON, Esq., No. 21 McLean St., Adams, Cincinnati, O., writes: "I took sick with dropsy, lost my appetite, could not sleep, became feverish; always thirsty, lost all strength, stomach became painful, breath short and had to give up work. The best physicians in Cincinnati failed to help me. My limbs and body were swollen to enormous size, and I was suffering terrible agony. The doctors all said I could not get well again, that I was liable to drop dead at any moment. My wife sent for the priest, to prepare me for death. While waiting for death I remembered reading of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and thought I would try it as a last hope. When I had taken three bottles, I was almost well. The swelling entirely disappeared and I was soon able to resume work. My health is better now than it has been in twenty-five years."

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying cut. The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric currents conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom, they treat the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject, long since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nerve is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing the remedy amply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Restorative Nerve positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sold by all druggists.

UTOPIA IN THE BAY STATE.

Advantages Enjoyed by Members of a Brookline Co-Operative Community.

A number of people living in Brookline, Mass., are enjoying many of those ideal advantages that every household dreams of and without any of the vicious results that certain students of social questions warn us are inherent in co-operative communities. These people live in houses perfectly warmed and lighted by outside powers. The same or similar powers take care of their sidewalks winter and summer, wash and sweep the front steps and look after the lawns and flower beds. All this is done at a moderate cost. Each house has in the rear a grass plot of its own and in the center of the square formed by the four rows of houses there is a park with trees and walks and tennis courts. In this park is placed a pretty casino, where the members of the community can dance, bowl or play billiards, except on those occasions when some member engages it for a special entertainment. For such events as a dinner, a dance or a reception, the entire building with its conservatories may be rented for $9. This includes the attendance of a man from 8 to 12 o'clock in the evening. Decorations of plants and flowers are to be had at a moderate additional cost. The caterer's charge for table service, crockery, etc., for 100 persons is $7.50. Small and early parties beginning at 8 o'clock and with the last guest gone at 10:30, have the use of the hall for $2.50. Of this plan of co-operation a man who has been a householder twenty-five years, says: "This community of interest in no way trenches upon privacy, and it is as easy to preserve seclusion and independence as in a city block, where neighbors are practically strangers. I find myself for the first time, although in the largest house I have been privileged to occupy, entirely without the cares of a household."

FANCIES OF MAD FOLKS.

Strange Ideas Entertained by Inmates of an Asylum.

At a lunatic asylum I recently visited I saw a woman about 50 years of age who was under the belief that there were no men in the world. Just to test her the party of visitors among whom I was asked how many men there were in the room at that moment.

"None," she replied. "They are all females."

In the same asylum there is incarcerated an elderly lady known to the other inmates as "Silent Jane." Some months ago she committed an offense against a rule of the establishment and was severely reprimanded in consequence by the master. She thereupon gave expression to a resolve never to speak again, and up to the present time she has faithfully kept her promise, although persistent efforts are made to get her to talk.

The only noise made by the old woman is a sort of humming, and, despite the strongest temptations that have been held out to her, she never utters a word.

Once met a lunatic whose special mania was the making of beds. He was so fond of making beds that he voluntarily made the whole of the beds in one dormitory. He performed the task with marvelous regularity and speed. He could make a bed perfectly in less than two minutes, and such carefully made beds were never seen before.

THE DOG HAD ILL HEALTH.

Life Was Not Worth Living and He Committed Suicide.

A dog belonging to James Nuthall, the engineer of No. 8 engine company of Louisville, deliberately committed suicide recently, bystanders say. The dog was a fine setter and was highly prized by his owner. The animal had been sick for several days and acted queerly. A vacant lot adjoins the engine-house, and about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, as Officer Collins was passing the lot, he noticed the dog running at the fence with great force. The dog would butt the fence with his head a great deal after the fashion of a goat. A crowd collected and watched the queer antics of the dog for some time. In a short time the dog's head was all bloody and bruised. Several men started toward the animal to take him away from the fence. The dog ran past the crowd and into the street. A cart heavily loaded with brick was passing at the time. The cart belonged to Scott Newman. The dog started to run under the cart, but the colored driver lashed it with his whip. The dog refused to move, though he was whipped severely, and the horses knocked him down and tramped on him and a wheel of the cart ran over his head. He died in about ten minutes.

A Curiosity About Eclipses.

The average number of total and partial eclipses in any one year is four, the maximum seven and minimum two. There is nothing really peculiar in this except the fact that where only two occur they are always both of the sun. There are more solar than lunar eclipses, but the sun being so much larger than the earth or moon, the shadow terminates in a point and is visible only along a narrow track, while the lunar obscuration is frequently visible over a half a continent.

Worse Even Than To-Day's Fashions.

The first hoop-skirt was worn in 1530 and weighed forty pounds. It was a cage that could only be entered by being tipped to one side. Women crawled into this dreadful thing, which was fastened round the waist by a strong leather belt. No wonder the modern woman has all sorts of internal complaints.

Obedience to the Letter.

A story is told in central Maine of a young woman who distanced paternal families, so to speak, in a matter of parental authority. "Now, Mary Jane," said the stern parent, "I will consent to your going to the dance at the Corner to-night only under one condition." "What is that?" asked Mary Jane, meekly, her eyelids drooping pathetically. "It is," said the father, "that you won't let that young scapegrace, —, bring you home." "I'll promise," said the maid, and she went to the dance.

Scene next morning: "I thought you promised me not to let that fellow bring you home?" said the angry parent, with fire flashing from his eyes. "He didn't bring me home," said Mary Jane, archly. "But he came home with you, for I saw him." "Yes, but he didn't bring me. I told him what I had promised, so we walked home and he led the horse."—Lewiston Journal.

That Is Understood.

St. Louis Papa—Emeline, you should be careful and not use more words than are necessary to express your thoughts.

St. Louis Daughter—What have I said, papa?

St. Louis Papa—You said just now that Miss Caruth was fresh from Chicago.

St. Louis Daughter—Well? St. Louis Papa—Well, it wasn't necessary to use the word fresh.—Judge.

Thoughtful.

"So she flirted you," said the sympathetic friend.

"Yes."

"Did she give any reason?"

"She did. She said it was because of her philanthropic nature; that it was better to make a great many men happy by being engaged to them than to make one miserable by marrying him."—Washington Star.

Easy to Get Along With.

Hicks—What an amiable fellow Wilkies is. I never knew him to wrangle with anybody.

Wicks—No. He is a perfect peace-maker. When another begins to differ with him he says, in his inimitable way: "Why should we quarrel about this thing? Accept my ideas and all will be smooth and pleasant."—Boston Transcript.

Did Her Best.

Husband—Our bills for household expenses are as large as ever. I told you to reduce them.

Wife—I did. I took from ten to twenty dollars off of each one, but the tradesmen acted so about it I thought you'd better go around and reduce them yourself.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Suspicious Circumstance.

Mrs. Von Blumer—Were you playing poker with Mr. Witherby the other night?

Von Blumer—How did you know anything about it?

Mrs. Von Blumer—His wife told me today she was going to get that gown after all.—N. Y. Herald.

A Postponed Celebration.

"I shall celebrate my twenty-second birthday next week," said Miss Giddey to her dearest friend.

"I suppose you forgot it when it came around eight or nine years ago," was Miss Flypp's reply.—Harper's Bazar.

Half of It.

Little Boy—Our new horse is half Arabian.

Father—Think so?

Little Boy—Yep. He hasn't the star and crescent on his nose, but he's got the star. That's half of it.—Good News.

Catarrh

COLD IN THE HEAD

relieved instantly by one application of

Birney's Catarrh Powder

Mailed to any address.

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:

Gentlemen:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good sisters speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the hospital under their care. I will do nothing to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

Gentlemen:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrhal Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being 18 inches from my ear. Took upon it as a positive cure of deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

PERSONAL POINTS.

A statue is to be erected at Lisbon in honor of Donna Felipa de Perestrello, the wife of Columbus.

The duke of Parma, father of the princess of Bulgaria, has ten daughters and five sons, all of whom are living.

J. C. Pelton, who, in 1849, laid the foundation of the present public school system of California, is still living in San Diego, old, infirm and poor.

Conan Doyle's aptitude for telling stories began to show itself when he was very young and his school-boy friends used to offer him rewards in the way of tarts to relate romances.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pennell, the well-known bicycle tourists, who so delightfully illustrate and describe their travels, live in the top story of a fine old mansion at the foot of Buckingham street, Strand, London.

The emperor of Germany has declined to have a monument erected to the memory of King George V. of Hanover. The request was made by a number of former subjects of the king in the days when Hanover was not a part of Prussia.

John B. Adams, who died in Springfield, Mass., the other day, was conductor of the first train from Springfield to Albany in 1841, and had many interesting experiences during his long service. He escorted Kossuth in 1851, and in 1860 had charge of the special train with the prince of Wales aboard.

Audie Rives Chanler has changed in appearance, and her figure has lost its girlish lines. Her hair, which was once very light in tint, has grown somewhat dark, and there is a plump and matronly look about the author, which explains that more settled and tranquil character of her recent fiction.

Beatrice Harraden, the author of "Ships That Pass in the Night," is a hopeless invalid, whose literary work is accomplished sentence by sentence, as any exertion prolonged over five minutes is exhausting. For the last five years she has suffered from paralysis that enfeebled the entire right side of her body.

Governor Greenhalge of Massachusetts, who was for several years president of the Lowell humane society, tried to buy a horse in Boston the other day, but was told at every place he visited that it was next to impossible to obtain an animal with an "undocked" tail. "Then," said the governor, "I will walk."

The late Edmund Yates, who had been particularly proud of his light and shapely figure in early life, mourned over its loss when he had turned forty, and mourned yet more afterward when he got beyond 200 pounds. Howells, the novelist, often tells how he wishes he were as light as he was thirty years ago. General Miles, who was a slender young of-der during the war, is now, to his grief, one of the heaviest men in the army.

At a recent sale of relics of Miss Rosina Vokes, in New York, among them were a knife used by Edwin Forrest in "Virginius," given to John McCullough by Forrest and to Miss Vokes by McCullough; a pair of scales, also used by Forrest, in "Shylock," given to McCullough and used by him, and given to Miss Vokes by McCullough; a boat made by a prisoner in Libby prison during the war, and a fan which belonged to the Empress Eugenie.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The senate appropriation committee has submitted its report on the sundry civil bill. It recommends the appropriation of $72,000 to reimburse the French government for losses by fire and water to its exhibits at the World's Fair. It also recommends that the President be given authority to make suitable recognition to the various governments for their contributions toward the success of the Columbian exposition.

Four Men Drowned.

DETROIT, Mich., July 31.—The schooner Glad Tidings, when sailing up Detroit river, was cut in two by the steamer Pathfinder at 3 o'clock Sunday morning between Mammy Judy and Grassy Island light house.
